This memo text is in reference to the amendment on Line 23 of the report for a Hayes for Congress contribution on March 27, 2008. The amendment reflects a change in reporting designation from the general election of the primary election. The original reporting designation for the general election was a mistake made purely out of administrative error and was discovered in September 2008. Since the disbursement was made prior to the candidate's general election, and Lorillard Public Affairs Committee had not yet maxed to the primary election, it is clear that the general election reporting designation was an administrative error that should have originally been reported for the primary election.
